
From: Dave Russell [dlr@mindspring.com]
Sent: Thursday, November 04, 2004 6:12 AM
To: edison camino; dlr@mindspring.com
Cc: sdonziger@yahoo.com; monica_pareja@hotmail.com; awarye1@msn.com
Subject: Re: ASSAYS CHANGES

Thank you.

The request comes from a meeting of senior lawyers representing the litigation which suggested that the analyses for BTEX and GRO would be counterproductive to the case because it argues for more recent contamination and that implies PetroEcuador rather than Texaco.

Dave

At 11:22 PM 11/3/2004, edison camino wrote:

Dave:

Here are the memos to CESAQ laboratory. One is the same you got here, and the other one is without GRO, and BTEX as you requested.

Regards,
Edison

Do You Yahoo!?

Todo lo que quieres saber de Estados Unidos, América Latina y el resto del Mundo.
Visita Yahoo! Noticias.